

NOTE NO. 54/84

The Australian Embassy presents its compliments to the Embassy of the People's Socialist Republic of Albania and has the honour to refer to the question of diplomatic relations between the Commonwealth of Australia and the People's Socialist Republic of Albania.

After due consideration the Australian Government has decided that in the interests of closer mutual understanding and intercourse it would be desirable if the status of relations between the Commonwealth of Australia and the People's Socialist Republic of Albania were enhanced.

The Australian Embassy has therefore been instructed to convey to the Embassy of the People's Socialist Republic of Albania a proposal that diplomatic relations be established between our two countries at the level of Ambassador. It is also proposed that the head of mission of the Australian Embassy in Belgrade would be accredited on a non-resident basis to the People's Socialist Republic of Albania.

The Australian Embassy would be grateful if the Embassy of the People's Socialist Republic of Albania would convey these proposals to its Government and advise the Australian Embassy of the response.

The Australian Embassy avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Embassy of the People's Socialist Republic of Albania the assurances of its highest consideration.
